

SCHOOLS, EDUCATION, AND SOCIETY

The minor in Schools, Education, and Society (SES) is intended for students who have an interest in education but who are not pursuing a teaching license. Students are required to complete 17 hours.

The following four courses are required for the SES minor.

Educational Policy and Practice

This course explores philosophical, historical, and sociological foundations of education (3h).

EDU 201

Field Lab I

This course focuses on school and society through practical experiences in public schools and a weekly seminar (2h).

EDU 201L

Learning and Cognitive Science

This course introduces theories and principles of cognition applied to teaching and learning (3h).

EDU 311

Professional Experiences in Education

This course offers students a placement in an educational setting under the supervision of a professional mentor (3h).

EDU 368

Students are required to complete at least two of the following courses.

Adolescent Literature

This course focuses on the reading and interpretation of classic and contemporary young adult literature across genres (3h).

EDU 231

Comparative & International Education

This course examines historical, political, economic, cultural, and social issues shaping education in selected countries throughout the world (3h).

EDU 373

Social Justice Issues in Education

This course facilitates exploration of issues of social justice and schooling from both theoretical and practical perspectives (3h). Prerequisite, EDU 201

EDU 304

Literacy in the 21st Century

This course examines the impact of emerging literacy trends on 21st century students in a digital, global world (3h).

EDU 377

Design, Assessment, and Technology

This course introduces contemporary technologies for supporting instruction, assessment, and professional practice (3h). Prerequisite, EDU 311

EDU 307

Writing Pedagogy

This course provides students with a foundational understanding of writing pedagogy methods and approaches (3h).

EDU 388

Content Pedagogy

This course explores teaching methods used in secondary content areas (English, mathematics, science, second languages, social studies) (3h).

EDU 354

Teaching Diverse Learners

This course addresses diversity in the classroom and examines differentiated instruction to meet the needs of all students (3h).

EDU 395

WAKE FOREST
UNIVERSITY

Department of Education